EAST LONDON — Former East Londoner and Springbok yachtsman Blaine Dodds was a convincing winner of the Thomas Cook Border Hobie 14 Championship held here.

The Hobie 16 title went to Steve Arnold of Port Elizabeth who had East Londoner Keith Rohland as his crew.

Ideal weather saw an entry of 33 take to the water. Five races were sailed in varying conditions. The Hobie 14 title was never in contention with Dodds winning all five races.

The team event was won by Port Elizabeth and the Thomas Cook Trophy for the best sportsman went to Syd Lippstreu of PE.

Results were:

Hobie 14: 1, Blaine Dodds (PE); 2, Peter Tomalin (EL); 3 Geoff Jones (EL); 4, Lionel Hartley (EL).

Hobie 16: 1, Steve Arnold (PE) and Keith Rohland (EL); 2, Walter Baumgartner and Joo Brito (PE); 3, Hylton Hale and Leon de Kok.
