PIETER MARITZBURG. — Springbok yachtsman Bruce Dalling is offering his Hong Kong-built sloop, Vertue Carina, for sale.

Recently he sailed the five-ton sloop single-handed on a 14,000-mile trip from Hong Kong to Durban via the Philippines and Pacific Ocean islands.

Mr. Dalling said yesterday he was selling the Vertue Carina because: “I had been neglecting her while pre-occupied with other things.”

He has his sights set on other ocean racing projects and an American naval architect is busy designing a new 50ft. yawl which he will enter in the Cape Town to Rio race in August next year.
