WHERE TO SEE START OF RACE

WHAT will be the best position to watch the start at 4.30 p.m. to-morrow of the Cape-to-Rio yacht race?

Closest to the start line, between the General Botha breakwater and the docks breakwater, is the beach front next to Beach Road, Mouille Point.

Farther away, but higher up, are sections of High Level Road and the section of Ocean View Drive near Bus Stop 4.

Still farther up the hill and less obstructed are Springbok Road and Merriman Road. Climb Signal Hill above Merriman Road till you are above the tree-line for a fine view.

The end of Signal Hill Road offers a very elevated view and, for those who get there early, there may even be parking.

These are the closest points, but for those who have binoculars, the top of Table Mountain, weather permitting, De Waal Drive above Woodstock and Tafelberg Road beyond the cableway are in sight of the start line.

Buses will leave Greenmarket Square every two minutes from 2 p.m. for Ocean View Drive.
