Dear Brian,

A very brief note of thanks for the trouble you went to in amending my travel itinerary.

I am looking forward to meeting the competitors again in London, as I am sure some new technical gimmicks and other developments must have arisen from the Race that will be worth learning about. If there is anything outstanding I will inform you on my return.

I saw Jan at the Opening Cruise last Saturday. As usual he is well and full of bounce.

Kindest regards.

Yours,

Bounce
