

ISLAND CLUB YACHT RACING

Yachting Correspondent

THE wind was light and variable for the Island Sailing Club's Winter Series class races sailed on Durban bay on Saturday.

Nine Finns went to the start line. Ernie Shaw sailed extremely well and won the race from John Howard, with Roger Cockram third. Shaw finished less than 30 seconds ahead of Howard.

The Enterprises had a keen race. It was won by Dave Geerds, sailing Etemba. He beat Don Mackenzie into second place and Gill Wright into third place. Only 35 seconds separated these three boats.

Nicky Korving, the national Sprog champion, was hard pressed to keep Keith Harris and his sister, Cecily, behind him. Korving sailed his usual impeccable race to beat Cecily Harris by one minute and her brother by one minute 20 seconds.

In the combined class a Spearhead, sailed by Dudley Forrest, beat the Fireball with Peter Boswell at the helm by two minutes.

Results on handicap:

Combined: 1, Siren Song (P. Boswell).
2, Sherwood (D. Forrest). 3, Marita (D. K. Gerson).

Sprogs: 1, Shazam (K. Harris) 2, Stupid (C. Harris). 3, Snickie (N. Korving).

Enterprises: 1, Eolian (G. Wright); 2, Eider (P. Hall); 3, Etemba (D. Geerds).

Fins: 1, Finane (S. F. Glinane); 2, Fiance (E. Bodamer); 3, Fleur de Lys (E. R. Shaw).
